

CHEATING SIDE FOR ADULT MAN

MAN

I told you your sorries mean nothing to me. If you really cared you wouldn't have cheated on me in the first place. If you say accident one more time. I'm going to... Look his penis didn't accidentally fall into you the first time, the second time or the next six months that you were cheating on me. Save it! I've heard this song over and over it never changes. I don't want to do this again. I'll go sleep in the other guest room that way Josey and Dom won't know we aren't sleeping together. But eventually they're going to have to know that we're over. What kills me is that you're sorry now. You weren't sorry when you were creeping with that... You weren't sorry when he was sending you emails and texting you. You weren't sorry when he was sending flowers to your job and lingerie here. You weren't sorry as long as you didn't know that I knew. You weren't sorry until I followed you to the hotel the night you were supposed to be in class. You weren't sorry until you saw me standing there with his wife. If you were so sorry you would've never cheated in the first place! No! No more baby, no more pleading, no more begging! We are done! Go back to the man you were cheating with, oh wait you can't. He and his wife reconciled and they're doing good now. Did you really think he was going to leave his wife for you?!? You were just something easy for him to waste time with. You're nothing but a slut and I AM DONE WITH YOU!
