

FAMILY SIDE FOR YOUNG ADULT FEMALE/YOUNG GIRL

TEEN GIRL/YOUNG ADULT FEMALE

He's telling the truth...my dad doesn't care about me, my mother doesn't care about me...neither one of my parents care...they're never home. I see my dad in church and my mom when she comes home to change clothes going from one job to the other. Why did they bother having children, why did they have me? Oh, but they care, you think they care, then explain why neither one of them remembered my birthday? My birthday was 3 months ago and neither one has yet to say "Happy Birthday" or give me a gift. I bought myself a birthday cake and left it on the counter where they would see it two days after my birthday, when I woke up the next morning the cake box was in the garbage, empty and still no "Happy Birthday" from either one of them. The last time either one of them said "I love you" was when I was in diapers. I just don't understand, what did I do? Why, why don't they love me? What didn't I do? What...was I not smart enough, was I not pretty enough, was I not light enough, was I not dark enough? Did I eat too much, did I need too much attention? What did I do to cause my parents to hate me?!? WHY DON'T YOU LOVE ME DADDY??? WHY DONT YOU LOVE ME MOMMY??? I'll do anything if you'll just love me.
